

FOURTH
PRESBY TERIAN
CHURCH

A LIGHT IN THE CITY

I think I shall go mad if the Student Christian Movement produces another book on Christianity and Communism, Christ or Chaos, Deliverance or Doom. Everything that can, need, or ever will be said has now been said, a hundred times over, about the superiority of Christianity in theory. We have enough theories to last a generation. The modern world knows quite well what our theory is, what they are interested in is whether we are prepared to show the vaguest signs of putting it into practice.

George MacLeod
Speaking the Truth in Love (1936)

This evening's Vespers service, which celebrates the lives of those who have died in the past year, features Maurice Duruflé's Requiem performed by the Morning Choir. Duruflé, who served as organist at St. Etienne-du-Mont in Paris from 1930 until his death in 1986, composed Requiem in 1947 in memory of his father. His only large-scale and perhaps his best-known work, Requiem, like much of the rest of Duruflé's music, is based largely on plainsong and its associated modal scales; the original Gregorian chant of the Mass of the Dead forms the foundation of each movement.

Prayer of Confession

(unison)

Holy God, you see us as we are and know our inmost thoughts. We confess that we forget that all life comes from you and that to you all life returns. We have not always sought nor done your will. We have not lived as your grateful creation nor loved as Christ loved us. Only your grace can save and sustain us. Lord, in your mercy, forgive us, heal us, and make us whole. Set us free from our sin and restore to us the joy of your salvation, now and forever. Amen.

Declaration of Pardon

Leader: Friends, believe the good news.
All: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Concerns of the Church

Psalter Psalm 139:1-12 (responsively) (page 577, O.T.)

Anthem "Domine Jesu Christe" M. Duruflé

Lord Jesus Christ, King of Glory, deliver the souls of all the faithful from the pains of hell and from the deep pit; save them from the mouth of the lion, nor allow the dark lake to swallow them up, nor darkness to enshroud them. But let Saint Michael, the standard-bearer, lead them into the holy light, as thou didst promise to Abraham and to his seed forever. With our prayers, O Lord, we offer a sacrifice of praise; do thou receive it on behalf of those souls whom we this day commemorate. Grant, O Lord, that they may pass from death to life, which thou didst promise to Abraham and to his seed.

let perpetual light shine upon them.

"Liberate Me" M. Duruflé
Deliver me, O Lord, from eternal death in that awful day when heaven and earth shall be moved when thou shalt come to judge the world by fire. Trembling, I stand before thee, and I fear the trial that shall be at hand and the wrath to come when heaven and earth shall be moved. That day, a great day and exceeding bitter. Grant them rest eternal,
Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

Prayer After Communion (unison)

ABOUT THE BANNERS

The banners hanging in the Sanctuary this stewardship season invite reflection on the reciprocal relationship of giving. Created by Catherine Kapikian, they convey the text of Luke 6:38 in words and vibrant symbols that encourage consideration of the extent to which one's life and gifts are a conduit of God.

ABOUT THE COVER

The Children's Fountain, located in the Garth, was the gift of architect Howard Van Doren Shaw. It includes the quotation "For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea," from Isaiah 11:9. Fourth Presbyterian Church has made a year-long commitment to commemorating the Presbyterian Year of the Child, through educational, advocacy, and arts events.

Choir Available to Sing

Book the Morning Choir of Fourth Church to sing at a home or office gathering this Christmas season. Donations for having the choir sing at such holiday events will go toward the Morning Choir's June 2001 concert tour of France. To book the choir for a carol performance, call John Sherer at ext. 219.
