Sixth Sunday After Pentecost

Even when we try to run away from our troubles, God will find us, and bless us, and even when we feel most alone, unsure if we will survive the night. God will find a way to let us know that he is with us in this place, wherever we are, however far we think we've run. And maybe that's one reason we worship—to respond to grace. We praise God not to celebrate our own faith but to give thanks for the faith God has in us. To let ourselves look at God and let God look back at us. And to laugh and sing, and be delighted because God has called us to be his own.

THE FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF CHICAGO

Morning Worship 8:00, 9:30, and 11:00

The beginning of the prelude is a call to silent, personal preparation for the worship of God.

Prelude Voluntary in D Minor John Stanley
Allegro–Adagio–Allegro
Flute Solo Thomas Arne
Voluntary in D Major William Boyce
Larghetto–Vivace
Blessed Jesus, at Your Word Johann Sebastian Bach

Introit I heard the voice of Jesus say, “I am this dark world’s light. Look unto me, thy morn shall rise, and all thy day be bright.” I looked to Jesus and I found in him my star, my sun, and in that light of life, I’ll walk till traveling days are done.

Doxology and Invocation (The Hymnal, 592)

Hymn 458 “Earth and All Stars” Herbert Brokering

Prayer of Confession (unison)
Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart and mind and strength. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. In your mercy, forgive what we have been, help us amend what we are, and direct what we shall be, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

Declaration of Pardon

Leader: Friends, believe the good news.
All: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

And every gentle heart that burns with true desire is lit from eyes that mirror part of that celestial fire.

(9:30 and 11:00) Anthem “Let Thy Hand Be Strengthened” John Blow
Let thy hand be strengthened and thy right hand be exalted. Let justice and judgment be the habitation of thy seat. Let mercy and truth go before thy face. Hallelujah.

Hymn 335 “Though I May Speak” Hal Hopson

Apostles’ Creed (traditional)
I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People and the Lord’s Prayer

(unison)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Response God came as savior to his own, the way of love he trod. He came to win us by goodwill, for force is not of God.

The eighth-century Irish hymn text "Be Thou My Vision" expresses the ageless need of all people to have a heavenly vision and to experience God's care and presence throughout this earthly pilgrimage. The anonymous author's high regard for God is evident in the various titles ascribed to God: vision, Lord of my heart, best thought, great God of heaven, wisdom, true word, ruler of all. It brings to mind something Jonathan Swift, another Irishman, said in Thoughts on Various Subjects, "Vision is the art of seeing things invisible."

Affirmation of Faith

(unison)

We are not alone, we live in God's world. We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God. We are called to be the Church: to celebrate God's presence, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our Judge and our Hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.
