Seventh Sunday After Pentecost

In life and in death we belong to God. Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, we trust in the one triune God, the Holy One of Israel, whom alone we worship and serve. . . .

. . . In gratitude to God, empowered by the Spirit, we strive to serve Christ in our daily tasks and to live holy and joyful lives, even as we watch for God's new heaven and new earth, praying, "Come, Lord Jesus!" With believers in every time and place, we rejoice that nothing in life or in death can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Few musicians have enjoyed higher renown while they lived or exercised more profound and lasting influence on those who came after them than Josquin Desprez (c.1440-1521). He was hailed by his contemporaries as "the best of the composers of our time" and the "father of musicians." "He is the master of the notes," said Martin Luther. "They must do as he wills; as for the other composers, they have to do as the notes will."

Offering

Offertory Anthem

"At the Name of Jesus" Ralph Vaughan Williams
At the name of Jesus every knee shall bow, every tongue confess him King of glory now; 'tis the Father's pleasure we should call him Lord, who from the beginning was the mighty Word. At his voice creation sprang at once to sight, all the angel faces, all the hosts of light, thrones and dominations, stars upon their way, all the heavenly orders, in their great array. Humbled for a season, to receive a name from the lips of sinners unto whom he came, faithfully he bore it spotless to the last, brought it back victorious when from death he passed. Bore it up triumphant with its human light, through all ranks of creatures, to the central height, to the throne of Godhead, to the Father's breast; filled it with the glory of that perfect rest. Name him, Christians, with love as strong as death, but with awe and wonder, and with bated breath. He is God the Savior, he is Christ the Lord, ever to be worshiped, trusted, and adored. In your hearts enthrone him; there let him subdue all that is not holy, all that is not true. Let his will enfold you in its light and power.
Christians, this Lord Jesus shall return again, with his Father's glory, with his angel train. For all wreaths of empire meet upon his brow, and our hearts confess him King of glory now.
