Seventh Sunday of Easter

Baptism ritually sketches the contours of a whole new life, within which all human needs and ways of living can be perceived in a different way. Under water, we cannot secure our own lives, but we can know, in a knowing beyond words, that God's creativity overcame the darkness that covered the face of the deep at earth's beginning. . . . When a new Christian rises from the baptismal water, human needs are not just met; they are transformed. Even the need not to die no longer overpowers all other needs. . . . "In baptism," said St. Francis, "we have already died the only death that matters."

Prayer for the Seventh Sunday of Easter

(unison)

Risen Christ, may we who in baptism die to sin rise again to new life and find our place in your living body. May the new covenant sealed in your blood bring healing and reconciliation to this wounded world. Alleluia. You are risen. We are risen with you. Praise and glory to the living God. Amen.

Prayer of Confession

(unison)

O God, we confess that our experiences of suffering make us doubt your promise and power. Like those captives in the past, we see no reason and no way to sing your praise. In the depth of our despair, we do not sense your presence. In our isolation, we do not feel your nearness. Forgive us, God, for in Jesus Christ you took on life for us and never promised a world without suffering, but that you would bear us through it. Cleanse us of all bitterness and doubt, and renew us in your merciful Spirit. Amen.

Declaration of Pardon

Leader: Friends, believe the good news.
All: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

(9:30 and 11:00) Sacrament of Baptism

(9:30 and 11:00) Unison Prayer

Holy God, remind us of the promises given in our own baptism and renew our trust in you. Make us strong to obey your will and to serve you with joy; for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(11:00) Rite of Confirmation

(11:00) Unison Prayer

Gracious God, we praise you that you have called us out and called us together to be your people. We give thanks that you have added to our number these young brothers and sisters in faith. Together may we grow in our lives in the Spirit and in our love for one another, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Concerns of the Church

Psalter Psalm 68:4-10 (responsively) (page 529, O.T.)

Anthem “O Clap Your Hands” John Rutter
O clap your hands together all ye people; O sing unto God with the voice of melody. For the Lord is high and to be feared: he is the great King upon all the earth. He shall subdue the people under us and the nations under our feet. He shall choose out a heritage for us: even the worship of Jacob whom he loved. God is gone up with a merry noise, and the Lord with the sound of the trumpet. O sing praises unto our King. For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding.

First Lesson 1 Samuel 1:20-28 (page 245, O.T.)
Leader: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

Gloria Patri (The Hymnal, 579)
(9:30 and 11:00) Children are dismissed to Sunday school classes.

Second Lesson Mark 1:9-11 (page 34, N.T.)

Sermon by Joanna M. Adams
WATER AND SALT
“And a voice came from heaven, ‘You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased.’” Mark 1:11 (NRSV)

Hymn 492 “Baptized in Water” Tune: BUNESSAN

Apostles’ Creed (unison)
I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People and the Lord’s Prayer

(unison)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Response A hymn of glory let us sing, new hymns throughout the world shall ring; by a new way none ever trod, Christ takes his place, the throne of God!

Worship Notes: John Brownlow Geyer wrote the text of this morning's closing hymn, "We Know That Christ Was Raised," for the tune "Engelberg" in 1967 when he was tutor at Cheshunt College, Cambridge. At that time, a good deal of work was going on round the corner (involving a number of American research students) producing living cells. The hymn illustrates the Christian doctrine of baptism in relation to those experiments.

This morning's anthem "Clap Your Hands" by John Rutter and based on Psalm 47 is one of the anthems that will be featured at next Sunday afternoon's Chicago Three Choirs Festival to be held here at Fourth Church (see page 10).

This evening's worship service is being led by the Confirmation Class of eighth graders (see page 8) who are being confirmed at the 11:00 service this morning.

Prayer of Confession (unison) Aurora Flores
Merciful God, hear us as we confess our sin. We judge others too freely and overlook the sin that is in ourselves. We are intolerant of those who disagree with us and unwilling to put ourselves in their shoes. We are called to be reconcilers, but instead we create divisions. We are commanded to live for Christ, but instead we live for ourselves. We are blinded by our greed and only come to you in time of desperation. We are not grateful for your many blessings. Please forgive us, O God, and remake us into ambassadors of your peace. Amen.

My God is so high you can’t get over him; he’s so low you can’t get under him; he’s so wide you can’t get around him, you must come in by and through the Lamb. BAPTISM AT FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

*“Let the little children come to me . . .
for it is to such as these that the kingdom of heaven belongs.”
Matthew 19:14 (NRSV)*

On the second Sunday of each month, Fourth Church includes the Sacrament of Baptism in morning worship. Baptism is the sign and seal of God’s grace and covenant in Christ. As The Book of Order of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) explains, baptism signifies the faithfulness of God, the washing away of sin, rebirth, putting on the fresh garment of Christ, and adoption into the covenant family of the church.

The baptism of children witnesses to the truth that God’s love claims people before they are able to respond in faith. The congregation, on behalf of the whole church, assumes responsibility for nurturing the baptized children in the Christian life, and it is for this reason that the congregation makes such a promise during the service.

In the unison prayer we also remember that we too were baptized and as children of God are part of the worldwide family of faith.

Children being baptized at the 9:30 worship service are

*Roland Charles Cavatoni, son of Philip and Courtney Cavatoni
Jessica Call Hinchsliff, daughter of James and Megan Hinchsliff
Andrew Allen Hubbard, son of James and Rebecca Hubbard

Eleanor Poland Noetzel, son of Ian and Suzanne Noetzel

Katie Elizabeth Dau, daughter of Mark and Sara Dau
Emma Regan Ginster, daughter of Andrew Ginster and Tracy Elsing
