“It is my name. If somebody forgets it, I feel that it’s I who am forgotten. There is something about it that embarrasses me in just the same way that there is something about me that embarrasses me. I can’t imagine myself with any other name. . . . If my name were different, I would be different.”

Worship Notes: The text of this morning's closing hymn, "Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing," was written by Robert Robinson (1735-1790). Born in Norfolk, England, Robinson was a barber, who, after attending an evangelistic service, began to work for evangelical revivals and later became a Baptist minister. The second stanza of this hymn mentions an "Ebenezer," which is the name of the memorial stone set up by Samuel after the victory at Mizpah (1 Samuel 7). Robinson uses the term as an allusion to the text "Thus far the Lord has helped us" (1 Samuel 7:12).

THE LORD'S SUPPER AT FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

"Do this in remembrance of me." Luke 14:9 (NRSV)

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper (also called Communion) is an occasion for the family of faith to gather around a common table and share symbolically a time of eating and drinking in communion with the crucified and risen Lord. In this act, we remember that during his earthly ministry, Jesus shared meals with his followers and sat at dinner tables as a sign of acceptance of the sinner and the outcast. In the last meal before his death, Jesus shared with his disciples bread and wine, speaking of these elements as his body and blood, symbols of the new relationship with God brought about by his impending death. On the day of his resurrection, the risen Jesus made himself known to his followers in the breaking of bread.

In the act of remembering that is the Lord's Supper, we receive and trust the love of Christ present to us and to the world. Through this symbolic meal, we are renewed and empowered to be the church, the body of Christ, in the world.

The invitation to the Lord's Supper is not just for Presbyterians or "members of the church." All who confess Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord are invited to partake of the Lord's Supper. Access to the Table is not a right conferred upon the worthy but a privilege given to the undeserving who come in faith, repentance, and love. Even one who doubts or whose trust is wavering may receive the bread and grape juice (in place of wine) in order to be assured of God's love and grace in Jesus Christ.

At our morning communion services, the congregation is served in the pews by elders and deacons in an act symbolizing their role as servant leaders in the church. The congregation also takes on the role of servers as worshipers pass the trays of bread and grape juice to those seated beside them. The congregation partakes of the elements as they are served. Empty glasses are placed in the ringed holes in the pew racks.

Fourth Presbyterian Church celebrates the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper each Sunday at evening worship and at morning worship on the first Sunday of even-numbered months.

*"I am the bread of life."
John 6:35 (NRSV)*
