

The very least you can do in your life is to figure out what you hope for. And the most you can do is live inside that hope. Not admire it from a distance but live right in it, under its roof. What I want is so simple I almost can't say it: elementary kindness. Enough to eat, enough to go around. The possibility that kids might one day grow up to be neither the destroyers nor the destroyed.

Hymn 482 “Praise Ye the Lord, the Almighty”
Tune: LOBE DEN HERREN

Prayer of Confession (unison)
Merciful God, in your gracious presence we confess our sin and the sin of the world. Although Christ is among us as our peace, we are a people divided against ourselves as we cling to the values of a broken world. The profit and pleasure we pursue lay waste the land and pollute the seas. The fears and jealousies that we harbor set neighbor against neighbor and nation against nation. We abuse your good gifts of imagination and freedom, of intellect and reason, and have turned them into bonds of oppression.
Lord, have mercy on us; heal and forgive us. Set us free to serve you in the world as agents of your reconciling love in Jesus Christ. Amen.

Declaration of Pardon

Leader: Friends, believe the good news.
All: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Worship Notes

Today's Minute for Mission is presented by Patty Jenkins, Director of Fourth Church's Center for Older Adults.

The postlude at 11:00 worship is being played by German organist Johannes Unger. Mr. Unger was recently appointed Assistant Organist at St. Thomas Church in Leipzig, where J. S. Bach was cantor from 1723 to 1750. Mr. Unger will play the closing concert of the Chicago International Organ Festival at 3:00 p.m. this afternoon in the sanctuary. His program includes works by Buxtehude, Bach, and Reger.

The cityscape banners, designed for the Stewardship 2003 campaign by Nancy Chinn, are revealed as member pledges are received, indicating our communal pledge to be a light in the city through the mission and ministries of Fourth Church.

The textile banners and pulpit parament, Unweavings created by Laurie Wohl, are intended to elevate the perception of the sacred in the "ordinary" as we make our faith journey day to day. More information about these hangings is available in the literature racks.

Lincoln's Greatest Speech: The Second Inaugural, to Preach Sunday, March 2 at 6:30 p.m.

Abraham Lincoln's Second Inaugural Address, delivered on March 4, 1865, is perhaps best known for its line "with malice toward none, with charity for all." In his 2002 book, Lincoln's Greatest Speech: The Second Inaugural, Presbyterian pastor Ron White takes a close look at not only those words but the entire speech, as he explores the impact that address has had.

Author of five books on topics of American intellectual, religious, and social history, Ron White is currently Professor of American Intellectual and Religious History and Dean at San Francisco Theological Seminary. He previously taught at Colorado College, Whitworth College, Princeton Theological Seminary, and UCLA.

On Sunday, March 2, Fourth Church has the privilege of welcoming Ron White to its pulpit for 6:30 p.m. Vespers. At 4:30 p.m. that afternoon, he will also be available for informal group conversation. Please join us for this special opportunity next Sunday.
