

Sinai is too far beyond the horizon for us to see, and if we could see it, its summit would still be mantled by cloud, for no one can see the face of God and live. But it is not too far away to hear. Those who in the din of our troubled times turn an ear toward it will still detect, not the sound of thunder, but a still, small voice, patient and sure, with the undiminished authority of yesterday, today, and forever, saying: "Thou shalt have no other gods before me." "All that have ears to hear, let them hear."

Edwin M. Poteat

The "One Great Hour of Sharing" Offering is being received this morning. For more than fifty years, Christians throughout the nation have given gifts to this offering, responding to Christ's love for all people by joyfully sharing that love with people in need. Each year during Lent, Fourth Presbyterian Church receives this offering, which supports Fourth Church's Center for Whole Life in Cabrini-Green, the Presbyterian Hunger Program, and the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Self-Development of People program. To make a gift to the "One Great Hour of Sharing" Offering, use one of the envelopes in the pew rack or write "One Great Hour" on the memo line of a check made payable to Fourth Presbyterian Church.
