Fifth Sunday in Lent

FOURTH PRESBY TERIAN CHURCH

A LIGHT IN THE CITY

The fighting. The search for peace. Hunger. Every evening we sit in our living rooms and watch on the flickering screen what has gone on in the world that day. What we choose to do about it, you and I—what worthy causes, if any, get our time and energy, what political candidates get our votes, how much money we give away or could afford to give away if our hearts were really into it—those are all issues of the greatest and most far-reaching importance not just for the saving of the world but for the saving of our own souls.

THE SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

Invitation

Great Thanksgiving

Minister: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Minister: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.
Minister: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Prayer

Minister: It is truly right and our greatest joy . . .
. . . who forever sing to the glory of your name:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of po - wer and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Blessed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Music: John W.W. Sherer; © 1997. Used by permission.

Minister: You are holy, O God of majesty . . .
 . . . dedicated to your service.
 Minister: Great is the mystery of faith:
 People: Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.
 Minister: Gracious God, pour out your Holy Spirit . . .

The Lord's Prayer (unison)
 Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
 Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glor y forever. Amen.

The Communion

(8:00) Communion Anthem "Jesu, Word of God Incarnate" David Williams

(9:30 and 11:00) Communion Anthem "Cantique de Jean Racine" G. Fauré

Psalm 23 (recited in unison after all have received the cup)
 The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures, he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
 I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Prayer After Communion (unison) Gracious God, you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. You have fed us with the bread of life and renewed us for your service. Help us, who have shared Christ's body and received his cup, to be his faithful disciples, so that our daily living may be part of the life of your kingdom, and our love be your love reaching out into the life of the world; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

VESPERS SERVICE

6:30 p.m.

The beginning of the prelude is a call to silent, personal preparation for the worship of God.

Prelude O God, Our Faithful God Johannes Brahms

Call to Worship

Leader: Deep inside us all—old and young alike—
there is a place of faith,
Leader: a place of trust and hope and love,
People: without which there can be no peace.
Leader: Jesus said, “Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them,
People: for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven.”
Leader: Hear then, O people of God: approach this hour as children of the Almighty,
People: with innocence of heart and unlimited hope,
Leader: with a trust that makes you vulnerable,
People: and with love that is easy and quick. Amen.

Prayer of Invocation

*Hymn 458 “Earth and All Stars” Tune: DEXTER

Prayer of Confession

(unison)
God of life and of love, we take time to confess that although you made each of us in your image, good and beautiful, we sin and deny your love, and we deny the goodness inside us and inside the people we meet. We turn away from you. We overpower, exploit, and manipulate our neighbors, sisters and brothers you charge us to care for. Our determination to make our own way is amazing and frightening. More frightening still is our insistence that you approve of our selfish actions. Forgive our stubborn strong-willed selfishness.
We come to you now, O God, willing to see your vision for lives, lives of love and care rather than hatred and violence. Empower us to follow your vision. Amen.

Declaration of Pardon

Leader: Friends, believe the good news.
All: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

FAITH SPEAKING TO FAITH

*Hymn 335 “Though I May Speak” Tune: O WALY WALY

*Affirmation of Faith (unison)
 To be reconciled to God is to be sent into the world as God's reconciling community. This community, the church universal, is entrusted with God's message of reconciliation and shares God's labor of healing the enmities which separate humans from God and from each other. Christ has called the church to this mission and given it the gift of the Holy Spirit. The church maintains continuity with the apostles and with Israel by faithful obedience to God's call.

Worship Notes

The bulletin cover features an unfolding flower growing out of a crown of thorns, which provides an apt metaphor for the new life arising from Christ's death and resurrection. This flower and crown of thorns is carved into the underside of the octagonal sounding board over the pulpit.

The text of this morning's offertory anthem, "Tantum Ergo," is "Therefore we, before him bending, this great sacrament revere; types and shadows have their ending, for the newer rite is here: faith, our outward sense befriending, makes the inward vision clear. Glory let us give, and blessing to the Father and the Son: honor, might, and praise addressing, while eternal ages run; ever too his love confessing, who, from both, with both is one."

Joanna Adams is preaching at Harvard University's Memorial Church this morning.

"One Great Hour of Sharing" Offering

For more than fifty years, Christians throughout the nation have given gifts to the "One Great Hour of Sharing" Offering, responding to Christ's love for all people by joyfully sharing that love with people in need. Each year during Lent, Fourth Presbyterian Church receives this offering, which supports Fourth Church's Center for Whole Life in Cabrini-Green, the Presbyterian Hunger Program, and the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Self-Development of People program. To make a gift to the "One Great Hour of Sharing" Offering, use one of the envelopes in the pew rack or write "One Great Hour" on the memo line of a check made payable to Fourth Presbyterian Church.

THE LORD'S SUPPER AT FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

"Do this in remembrance of me." Luke 14: 19 (NRSV)

The Lord's Supper is the sign and seal of eating and drinking in communion with the crucified and risen Lord. In this act, we remember that during his earthly ministry, Jesus shared meals with his followers and sat at dinner tables as a sign of acceptance of the sinner and the outcast. In the last meal before his death, Jesus took and shared with his disciples bread and wine, speaking of these elements as his body and blood, symbols of the new relationship with God brought about by his impending death. On the day of his resurrection, the risen Jesus made himself known to his followers in the breaking of bread.

In the act of remembering that is the Lord's Supper, we receive and trust the love of Christ present to us and to the world. Through it, we are renewed and empowered to be the church, the body of Christ, in the world.

The invitation to the Lord's Supper is not just for Presbyterians or "members of the church." All who confess Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord are invited to partake of the Lord's Supper. Access to the Table is not a right conferred upon the worthy but a privilege given to the undeserving who come in faith, repentance, and love. Even one who doubts or whose trust is wavering may receive the bread and grape juice (in place of wine) in order to be assured of God's love and grace in Jesus Christ.

At our morning communion services, the congregation is served in the pews by elders and deacons in an act symbolizing their role as servant leaders in the church. The congregation also takes on the role of serving: worshipers first take the bread and grape juice from the plate held by their neighbor and then they take the plate and serve the neighbor on their other side. Empty glasses are placed in the ringed holes in the pew racks.

Fourth Presbyterian Church celebrates the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper each Sunday at evening worship and at morning worship on the first Sunday of even-numbered months.
