

The only power that can effect transformation of the order we have described is love. It remained for the 20th century to discover that locked within the atom is the energy of the sun itself. For this energy to be released, however, the atom must be bombarded from without. So, too, locked in every human being is a store of love that partakes of the divine—the imago dei, the image of God that is within us. And it too can be activated only through bombardment—in its case, love's bombardment.

WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

We are grateful for your presence and invite you to participate in the worship, program, and service life of Fourth Church.

During Today's Worship

Large-print bulletins, Bibles, and hymnals and individual listening devices for improved sound are available in the back of the sanctuary.

If your infant or small child needs care during the worship service, you may leave the sanctuary and return as you wish. The worship service audio can be heard in Stone Chapel, where you and your child are also welcome.

Child care for infants and toddlers is provided in Westminster 14, through the south transept doors and to the right. See an usher for directions.

Worship bags, containing quiet activities and a bulletin designed for children, are available outside the south transept doors, between the sanctuary and Anderson Hall. Children who are attending worship in the sanctuary are invited to borrow one of these bags.

During the Concerns of the Church, please pass the pew information pads, so that all worshipers have an opportunity to provide updated information and to greet one another by name following the service.

Please turn off all cell phones when in the sanctuary.

If You Are New to Fourth Church

Please wear a lapel pin, found in the pew racks, so we might greet you after worship.

We invite you to stop by Coffee Hour after worship for fellowship, conversation, and information about church programs and volunteer opportunities.

A church tour begins at 12:15 p.m., starting at the back of the sanctuary.

Parking is available Sundays at the John Hancock Center, 875 North Michigan Avenue (access Chestnut Street), at the rate of $7.00 until 2:00 p.m. and at 900 North Michigan (access from Rush or Walton Street) at the rate of $7.75 to 4:00 p.m. and $6.00 after 5:00 p.m. Validation tickets must be picked up during Coffee Hour or from the Chestnut Street reception desk.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart and mind and strength. We have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
In your mercy forgive what we have been, help us amend what we are, and direct what we shall be, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

(unison)

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried;
he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,

and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church;
the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting.
Amen.

"Children's Letters to God"

C. M. Shearer

I. Dear Mister God, how do you feel about people who don't believe in you? Somebody else wants to know.

II. Dear God, I have got to know something.
What is it like in heaven? I know it's nice, but what kind of nice? What happens when it rains?

III. Dear God, my name is Robert. I want a baby brother.
My mother said to ask my father, my father said to ask you. Do you think you can do it? Well, good luck!

IV. Dear God, what is it like when you die? Nobody will tell me. I just want to know. I don't want to do it.

V. Last week it rained for three days. We thought it would be like Noah's ark, but it wasn't. I'm glad because you could only take two of things, remember, and we have three cats.

BAPTISM AT FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

*"Let the little children come to me . . .
for it is to such as these that the kingdom of heaven belongs."
Matthew 19:14 (NRSV)*

On the second Sunday of each month, Fourth Church includes the Sacrament of Baptism in morning worship. Baptism is the sign and seal of God's grace and covenant in Christ. As The Book of Order of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) explains, baptism signifies the faithfulness of God, the washing away of sin, rebirth, putting on the fresh garment of Christ, and adoption into the covenant family of the church.

The baptism of children witnesses to the truth that God's love claims people before they are able to respond in faith. The congregation, on behalf of the whole church, assumes responsibility for nurturing the baptized children in the Christian life, and it is for this reason that the congregation makes such a promise during the service.

In the unison prayer we also remember that we too were baptized and as children of God are part of the worldwide family of faith.

Children being baptized at the 9:30 worship service are Molly Claire Caragher, daughter of John and Emily Caragher
Eleanor Reeder Knouse, daughter of Jon and Denise Knouse
Isabella Monroy, daughter of Gerardo and Ivette Monroy
Regina Monroy, daughter of Gerardo and Ivette Monroy
Elaine Ann O'Neil, daughter of Dan and Kristin O'Neil
Bella Francesca Salvi, daughter of Emilio and Julie Salvi

Children being baptized at the 11:00 worship service are Fiona Jane Buchanan, daughter of Brian and Jillian Buchanan
Keller Christopher Hill, son of Chris and Debbie Hill
Gunnar Hamelin Kirk, son of Stuart and Elizabeth Kirk
Emma Kathleen Lane, daughter of Jeremy and Mandy Lane
William David Pilgrim, son of Blake and Sarah Pilgrim
Emily Alicja Rowe, daughter of Lorel Rowe and Agnes Bajkowska

Worship Notes

Fourth Church welcomes violinists Nathan Cole and Akiko Tarumoto to worship this morning. They will be playing during the prelude at 9:30 and 11:00 worship.

“Children’s Letters to God,” the offertory anthem sung by the Morning Choir, celebrates the 2006 Stewardship Campaign theme, “You are a letter of Christ, . . . written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts” (2 Corinthians 3:3).

The sculpture on the bulletin cover is a floor-to-ceiling mural, created by parents and children in 2003, that hangs in Westminster House. Its life-size figures represent Fourth Church, with its members and friends each an embodied letter of Christ, representing Christ in the world and together living out the church’s ministry and mission.

The textile banners and pulpit parament, “Unweavings” created by Laurie Wohl, are intended to elevate the perception of the sacred in the “ordinary” as we make our faith journey day to day. More information about these hangings can be found in the literature racks.
