

Love God. We have heard the words so often that we no longer hear them. They are too loud to hear, too big to take in. We know the words so much by heart that we scarcely know them any longer as words spoken to the heart out of a mystery beyond all knowing. . . . We hardly stop to wonder where they are taking us. Above all else, the words say, you shall love—not first your neighbor . . . that comes later. On the contrary, it is God you shall love first before you love anything else, and you shall love him with all that you are and all that you have it in you to become, whatever that means. The words don't explain. They just proclaim and command.

Wake us to see where the winds of the city are blowing,

Worship Notes

Today is Commitment Sunday, a day when our worship services focus on making personal, spiritual, and financial commitments to our annual Stewardship appeal. If you have not yet returned your completed pledge card, please place it in the offering plate this morning or mail it to the church this week. Pledge cards are available in the pew racks. Today's Minute for Mission is being presented by Llani O'Connor on behalf of the Stewardship Committee. After worship, join us in a special Coffee Hour celebration of this important day in the life of our church.

The Thanksgiving Offering, being received throughout November, supports programs addressing matters of aging and health. In particular, it helps fund the Lorene Replogle Counseling Center, the Center for Older Adults, and the Center for Whole Health. Gifts to this offering can be made using the envelopes in the pew racks or by writing "Thanksgiving Offering" on the memo line of a check made payable to Fourth Presbyterian Church.

The text for the hymn following the sermon, "Startle Us, God," was commissioned in 2005 by Fourth Presbyterian Church in honor of the twentieth anniversary of John Buchanan's ministry in Chicago.

The bulletin cover depicts the seeds of new life, in the form of acorns. This hand carved stone on the north wall of the chancel dates from 1914, the year of Fourth Church's construction. During this Stewardship season, we are mindful that the gifts we pledge as "letters of Christ" plant seeds of new life in this congregation and the communities it serves.
