
Holy Week Services 2009

To long for what eternity fulfills
Is to forsake the light one has, or wills
To have, and go into the dark, to wait
What light may come . . .

MAUNDY THURSDAY NOONDAY WORSHIP

12:10 p.m.

Maundy Thursday receives its name from the Latin mandatum novum do vobis, "A new commandment I give you." This new commandment, given by Jesus on the night he washed the disciples' feet, was "to love one another just as I have loved you." It is his example of—and our call to—love and service that we remember on Maundy Thursday.

The beginning of the prelude is a call to silent, personal preparation for the worship of God.

PRELUDE

CALL TO WORSHIP AND INVOCATION

LITANY FOR MAUNDY THURSDAY

Minister: On this day, Christ the Lamb of God gave himself into the hands of those who would slay him.

People: On this day, Christ gathered with his disciples in the upper room.

Minister: On this day Christ took a towel and washed the disciples' feet,

People: giving us an example that we should do to others as he has done to us.

Minister: On this day, Christ our God gave us this holy feast,

People: that we may be partakers of his resurrection and praise him always as Lord and Christ.

*HYMN 94

"An Upper Room Did Our Lord Prepare" Tune: O WALY WALY

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

Eternal God, whose covenant with us is never broken, we confess that we fail to fulfill your will. Though you have bound yourself to us, we will not bind ourselves to you. In Jesus Christ you serve us freely, but we refuse your love and withhold ourselves from others. We do not love you fully or love one another as you command. In your mercy, forgive and cleanse us. Lead us once again to your table and unite us with Christ, who is the bread of life and the vine from which we grow in grace. Amen.

DECLARATION OF PARDON

Minister: Friends, believe the good news.

People: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

PSALTER Psalm 116:1–2, 12–19 (responsively) (page 533, O.T.)

ANTHEM “Ubi Caritas” Maurice Duruflé

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION (unison)

God of grace, your Son Jesus Christ left us this holy meal of bread and wine in which we share his body and blood. May we who have celebrated this sign of his great love show in our lives the fruits of his redemption; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Anderson Hall can be reached by going straight ahead through the south transept doors, which are to your left as you face the front of the sanctuary. Please join us!

The Thursday evening Tenebrae service is an adaptation of the ancient Office of Tenebrae, which included a solemn observance of Holy Communion. The translation of the Latin word tenebrae is “shadows.” The office is a portrayal of the progression from light to darkness in the passion of Jesus, beginning with his abandonment on Thursday and concluding with his crucifixion on Friday. At the conclusion of the service, the sanctuary will be in darkness.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION John W. Vest

All: Eternal God, we have seen your love in Jesus Christ, who washed the disciples' feet on the night of his betrayal.
We confess that in spite of your faithfulness to us,
we betray our neighbors and, like Simon Peter,
desert our friends and run in fear when we should be loyal.
Though you have bound yourself to us, we seem unable to bind ourselves to you. We are weak and willful people, O God, dependent upon your mercy. Wash from us the stain of sin, so that in hours of danger and times of trial, we may be faithful to Christ our Savior. Amen.

Minister: Lord, have mercy upon us.
