Gathering around the Word

Prelude

Trinitas Eleanor Daley

I. "And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters."

II. "To the thirsty I will give water without price
from the fountain of life."

III. "And I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh."

Introit

"The Heaven's Resounding" Ludwig van Beethoven
arr. F. Melius Christiansen

*The heaven's resounding his glory eternal, and all creation praise one God;
the earth and the ocean his love and devotion, his truth and power proclaim abroad. And angels sing his glory incarnate, the Son of Man, yet King of kings the hosts reecho. All praise, adorations, O sovereign God and King divine, shall now and ever more be thine.*

*Doxology (sung). The Hymnal, 606

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
praise God, all creatures here below;
praise God above, ye heavenly host;
praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

*Call to Worship

One: We praise you, God, for we are wonderfully made.

Many: Wonderful are all your works; blessed be your name.

One: How precious to us are your thoughts, O God.

Many: We are not hidden from you.

You are everywhere that we may be.

One: Let us worship our ever-present God.

*Hymn 645. "Sing Praise to God Who Reigns Above"

Prayer of Confession (unison)

God of justice and love, who takes away the sins of the world,
have mercy upon us as we make our confession.
We call you Sovereign,
God of creation, yet we serve idols of our own making.
We confess Christ as our Savior,
yet we rely on our own efforts to build our sense of worth and protection.
We claim the indwelling Spirit,
yet we abide by our own counsel.
Forgive our double-mindedness,
and through Christ make us whole. Amen.

Declaration of Pardon

Minister: Friends, believe the good news.
People: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Responding to the Word

*Hymn 5 “God the Sculptor of the Mountains”

*Affirmation of Faith (unison). from A Brief Statement of Faith

We trust in God the Holy Spirit,
 everywhere the giver and renewer of life.
 The Spirit justifies us by grace through faith,
 sets us free to accept ourselves and to love God and neighbor,
 and binds us together with all believers
 in the one body of Christ, the church.

The same Spirit who inspired the prophets and apostles
 rules our faith and life in Christ through Scripture, engages us through the Word proclaimed,
 claims us in the waters of baptism,
 feeds us with the bread of life and the cup of salvation,
 and calls women and men to all ministries of the church.

In a broken and fearful world the Spirit gives us courage to pray without ceasing, to witness among all peoples
 to Christ as our Lord and Savior,
 to unmask idolatries in church and culture,
 to hear the voices of peoples long silenced,
 and to work with others for justice, freedom, and peace.

In gratitude to God, empowered by the Spirit,
 we strive to serve Christ in our daily tasks
 and to live holy and joyful lives,
 even as we watch for God’s new heaven and new earth,
 praying, “Come, Lord Jesus!”

With believers in every time and place,
 we rejoice that nothing in life or death
 can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Worship Notes

TODAY IS TRINITY SUNDAY, the day when the church celebrates the mystery of God as Three in One: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; one God who is Creator, Redeemer, and Comforter.

THIS MORNING, COMMUNION IS SERVED by intinction.

The congregation comes forward by the center aisle to receive the bread, which they then dip into the chalice of grape juice. (Gluten-free bread is available in a small tumbler in each basket of bread.) Worshipers return to their pews by the side aisles.

The invitation to the Lord's Supper is not just for Presbyterians or "members of the church." All who confess Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord are invited to partake of the Lord's Supper. Even one who doubts or whose trust is wavering may receive the bread and grape juice (in place of wine) in order to be assured of God's love and grace in Jesus Christ.

THE TRINITY—which we celebrate today—is referenced often in liturgical art and architecture by the grouping of things in threes. The cover image shows the three tracery elements at the top of the Great East Window (over Michigan Avenue), the inspiration for the Fourth Church logo (also on the front cover).
