Eternal God, you have called us into covenant,

Forgive our sin, O God, and turn us again toward your purposes.
Reform our lives by renewing our dedication to you.

By your Holy Spirit, give us a new sense of our calling,
a new zeal in our faithfulness,
a new compassion toward neighbors in need,
and a new appreciation for your love in Jesus Christ, our Lord.
May we always be open to the reforming and refreshing wind of your Spirit. Amen.

was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell;
the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church;
the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins;
the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,

Worship in the Reformed Tradition

As the headings in our bulletin remind us each week, the center of our worship is the Word—by which we mean both Scripture and the Living Word of God, Jesus Christ. Our Scripture witnesses to God and God’s activity. When it is read and proclaimed, Jesus Christ the Living Word is present by the inward witness of the Holy Spirit. It is this Living Word that is the center of everything we do in worship.

That worship follows the pattern we see in Isaiah 6 (page 597 of the Old Testament): adoration, confession, absolution, thanksgiving, and service. Overwhelmed by God’s majesty and glory, we gather together in praise offered through song and prayer.

In the face of that great goodness of God, we also see how we fall short of being who we were created to be and so we join in a prayer of confession. We then proclaim the forgiveness that we know in Jesus Christ. We live our lives in this cycle of realizing where we fall short, being honest to God about that, and then recognizing that God always forgives us, even before the words are on our lips, and lets us start new.

As we listen for the Word of God, Scripture is read. The sermon is proclaimed. We respond to the Word with thanksgiving, joining in song and affirming our faith, using words from the Presbyterian Church (USA)’s Book of Confessions—whether it be the Apostles’ Creed, a Brief Statement of Faith, or one of the other professions of faith—or words taken directly from Scripture.

Following Jesus’ instruction to pray, in the Prayers of the People we bring human need before God in hope, trust, and thanksgiving for God’s faithfulness, concluding with the Lord’s Prayer. Our response of thanksgiving also includes the giving of our material goods, bringing to God the offerings of our work as symbols of our gratitude and our acknowledgment that everything we have comes from God. In prayer we dedicate these gifts and our lives to the work of the church and God’s mission.

God then sends us, like Isaiah, back out into the world in service. Our final hymn of grateful praise moves directly into a charge and blessing to take what we have heard, to take what we have learned, and to actively live it out in the world, looking for God’s work all around us.

TODAY'S MINUTE FOR DISCIPLESHIP on "Let Your Light Shine," the 2017 Annual Appeal for Fourth Presbyterian Church and Chicago Lights, is presented by Kat Evans.

FOURTH CHURCH WELCOMES CELLIST BRENDAN TARM, a student of the Music Institute of Chicago, who is playing this morning's prelude. The Music Institute offers lessons for all levels on various instruments along with classes in music each weekend in the Gratz Center. For details, visit www.musicinst.org/chicago

TODAY IS REFORMATION SUNDAY, a day when we recall the rich heritage of the Protestant tradition. The Presbyterian Church (USA) grew out of the Reformation of the sixteenth century under leaders such as John Calvin and John Knox. It was on October 31, 1517, that Martin Luther posted his ninety-five theses on the church door in Wittenberg, Germany, the watershed event sparking the Reformation. Luther later authored the hymn "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God," sung early in today's service and featured in the Prelude. Reformation Sunday is also a day when we remember and give thanks for Reformation leaders and all others who have kept the faith.
