“When the Saints Go Marching In” African American spiritual

Greeting

*Opening Responses

(The congregational responses are in boldface type)

We remember, O God, the countless saints of history who have blazed a trail of courage through time.

We remember, O God, the tender touch of loved ones, the example of heroes, the healing words of comforters, the remarkable acts of fearless ones.

We remember, O God, the gentle strength of grandparents, the sacrifice of parents, the loyalty of friends, the kindness of strangers, the joy of children.

We remember, O God, the supreme love of Jesus, shown forth in the lives of all his disciples, young and old, dead and living, articulate and silent, strange and familiar, brilliant and ordinary.

We remember in every time and place the saints of God who have shaped our lives and our faith.

Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us worship God with joy!

* Stand as you are able

Inspired by the radical hospitality of Jesus Christ, Fourth Church welcomes all of God's children into the life of the church regardless of sex, gender, sexual orientation, age, race, ethnicity, physical or mental ability, mental health, educational background, economic situation, religious background, or documentation status.

Prayer of Confession (unison)

Holy God, we approach you as children hungry for love—
knowing that we are less than perfect, knowing that we have made mistakes—
and yet longing for your grace.
Shower your compassion on us,
fill us with your transformative power, strengthen us to forgive ourselves and each other and to move on.

Assurance of Pardon

Friends, in compassion, God knows our hearts and offers healing.

We turn again toward God's grace, love, and strength.

Let us celebrate the newness of life that awaits us each day.

In Jesus Christ we are forgiven, blessed, and sent into the world.

Passing of the Peace

The peace of Christ be with you all.

And also with you.

All are invited to stand and share the peace of Christ with one another.

Song “Reach Out Your Hand in Peace” Lucy Smith

Welcome

Hearing and Proclaiming the Word

Psalter Psalm 90:1–6, 13–17 (the congregation sings the antiphon)

God, you have been our refuge in every generation.
Before the mountains were brought forth,
 or the land and the earth were born,
 from age to age you are God.
You turn us back to the dust and say,
 “Go back, O child of earth.”
For a thousand years in your sight
 are like yesterday when it is past,
 and like a watch in the night.
You sweep us away like a dream;
 we fade away suddenly like the grass.
In the morning it is green and flourishes;
 in the evening it is dried up and withered.

ANTIPHON (unison) From age to age, you are God. From age to age, you are God.

Return, O God;
how long will you tarry?
Be gracious to your servants.
Satisfy us by your loving-kindness in the morning;
 so shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life.
Make us glad by the measure of the days that you afflicted us and the years in which we suffered adversity.
Show your servants your works
 and your splendor to their children.
May the graciousness of God our God be upon us;
 prosper the work of our hands;
 prosper our handiwork.

ANTIPHON (unison) From age to age, you are God. From age to age, you are God.

Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

something of the joy and compassion that you put into our lives.

We pray in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.
