Greeting

Opening Responses

(The congregational responses are in boldface type)

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God,
and the Word was God.
And the Word became flesh.
God gives us speech we can touch;
a Word alive among us.
Let us wait and worship together.

* Stand as you are able

Inspired by the radical hospitality of Jesus Christ, Fourth Church welcomes all of God's children into the life of the church regardless of sex, gender, sexual orientation, age, race, ethnicity, physical or mental ability, mental health, educational background, economic situation, religious background, or documentation status.

Opening Song “Comfort, Comfort Now My People”

Advent Prayer of Confession

In Advent, in the waiting, we gather around this wreath.
It's circular. No beginning. No end. A sign of God's constant love and faithfulness.
God's love encircles us, no matter who we are or where we've been,
and sets us free to love and serve our neighbor in response.
Let's lay down our burdens in this waiting.
Let's burrow into grace a little deeper as we pray together.

God of restless waiting and comfort, how long have we held our tongues?

How long have we stifled our cries?

You call us to wait for the day when we will be reconnected.

To trust that the day of fullness is coming. But we grow impatient.

We try to save ourselves. We try to fill ourselves.

We wade in shallow waters, drowning. We consume falsehoods, starving.

Give us the comfort of your promise that the fullness of Christ comes.

For all of us. Grace upon grace.

(Please hold silence.)

Lighting the Advent Wreath

Assurance of Pardon

Each candle we light, a constant, familiar glow, flickers in us.
Enlivens us for the waiting and warms us toward what is to come.
Friends, grace is becoming real. Believe it.

In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Passing of the Peace

The peace of Christ be with you all.

And also with you.

All are invited to stand and share the peace of Christ with one another.

Song "Soon and Very Soon" Andrae Crouch

Welcome

Hearing and Proclaiming the Word

Canticle Isaiah 40:1–11 (the congregation sings the antiphon)

ANTIPHON (unison) With power and glory, come; with power and glory, come.

Jesus, our Lord, Emmanuel, while we are waiting, come.

Comfort, O comfort my people, says your God.

Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and cry to her that she has served her term, that her penalty is paid, that she has received from the Lord's hand double for all her sins.

A voice cries out: "In the wilderness prepare the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill be made low; the uneven ground shall become level, and the rough places a plain. Then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all people shall see it together, for the mouth of the Lord has spoken.”

ANTIPHON (unison) With power and glory, come; with power and glory, come.
Jesus, our Lord, Emmanuel, while we are waiting, come.

A voice says, “Cry out!” And I said, “What shall I cry?”
All people are grass, their constancy is like the flower of the field.
The grass withers, the flower fades, when the breath of the Lord blows upon it;
surely the people are grass. The grass withers, the flower fades;
but the word of our God will stand forever.

Get you up to a high mountain, O Zion, herald of good tidings;
lift up your voice with strength, O Jerusalem, herald of good tidings, lift it up, do not fear; say to the cities of Judah, “Here is your God!”
See, the Lord God comes with might, and his arm rules for him;
his reward is with him, and his recompense before him.
He will feed his flock like a shepherd; he will gather the lambs in his arms, and carry them in his bosom, and gently lead the mother sheep.

ANTIPHON (unison) With power and glory, come; with power and glory, come.
Jesus, our Lord, Emmanuel, while we are waiting, come.

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Taking Communion to homebound members is part of the Deacon ministry this Advent. If you know of Fourth Church members who would like to receive Communion at home, please call Carol Allerton at 312.640.5448.

Today is the last day for Christmas flower gifts to be made in memory or honor of friends and loved ones. Contributions will make possible this year’s Christmas flowers in the Sanctuary, and the names of those remembered—and submitted no later than December 10—will be printed in the Christmas bulletin. Contributions can be made by using the forms in the literature racks or online at www.bit.ly/FPCgifts

During Today's Worship

All are encouraged to use the prayer card, found in this worship bulletin, to offer joys and/or concerns. The cards will be collected during the Sharing of Gifts (simply place the card in the offering plate as it is passed). The prayer requests will be read by the pastoral staff during the week.

All, including children, are invited to the Lord's Table to receive Communion, which is served by intinction. The congregation will come forward by the center aisle to receive the bread (gluten-free bread is available in the paper "cup" within the basket of bread), which they will then dip into the chalice of nonalcoholic grape juice. Worshipers will return to their pews by the side aisles.

Worship also can be heard through the "T" setting of hearing aids.

Please silence all electronic devices when in the Sanctuary.

If your infant or small child needs care during the worship service, you may leave the Sanctuary and return as you wish. There is also an area in the left-side aisle where your child can play quietly.

Worship folders, containing quiet activities and a bulletin for children, are available from a greeter.

Printed copies of sermons recently preached at Fourth Church are available in the literature racks. They are also available at www.fourthchurch.org/sermons/index.html.
