Prayer of Confession

Very early on the first day of the week when the sun had risen, the women went to the tomb, so that they might anoint Jesus.

We, too, anoint the death of our dreams, even before we allow them a chance to live.

They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in, they did not find the body.

We give up on hope so easily, giving up on the expectation that God will do something incredible.

While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them.

God speaks through the strangers we encounter, but we don't hear—we don't want to be challenged by a new word.

"Why do you look for the living among the dead? Jesus is not here. He is risen."

We seek life from the death of the past. We hold to that which breathes only in our memory, holding to mistakes long past, to hurts long inflicted, to strings attached to forgiveness.

God of life and love and forgiveness, receive our confession.

Turn us again toward you, Living God. Awaken us to your grace, we ask in Jesus' name.

(Please hold silence.)

God Forgives and Blesses Us

In Jesus Christ, we also are raised to new life.

Turn your hearts toward Christ and receive this good news.

In Jesus Christ we are forgiven, blessed, and sent into the world! Alleluia! Amen!

Passing of the Peace

The peace of Christ be with you all.

And also with you.

All are invited to stand and share the peace of Christ with one another.

Song "Reach Out Your Hand in Peace" Lucy Smith

We Proclaim the Story

Psalter Psalm 118:1–2, 14–24 (the congregation sings the antiphon)

Leader: Give thanks to God, who is good, whose mercy endures forever.
Let Israel now proclaim, “God’s mercy endures forever.”
God is my strength and my song and has become my salvation.
There is a sound of exultation and victory in the tents of the righteous:
“The right hand of God has triumphed! The right hand of God is exalted!
The right hand of God has triumphed!”

ANTIPHON (unison) Praise the Lord, whose love is eternal! Praise the Lord, whose love is eternal!

Leader: I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of God.
God has punished me sorely but did not hand me over to death.
Open for me the gates of righteousness; I will enter them and praise God.
“This is the gate of God; those who are righteous may enter.”

ANTIPHON (unison) Praise the Lord, whose love is eternal! Praise the Lord, whose love is eternal!

Leader: I will give thanks to you, for you answered me and have become my salvation.
The same stone which the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.
This is God’s doing, and it is marvelous in your eyes.
This is the day that God has made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.

ANTIPHON (unison) Praise the Lord, whose love is eternal! Praise the Lord, whose love is eternal!

All, including children, are invited to the Lord's Table to receive Communion, which is served by intinction. The congregation will come forward by the center aisle to receive the bread (gluten-free bread is available in the paper "cup" within the basket of bread), which they will then dip into the chalice of nonalcoholic grape juice. Worshipers will return to their pews by the side aisles.

Worship also can be heard through the "T" or "T-coil" setting of hearing aids.

Please silence all electronic devices when in the Sanctuary.

If your infant or small child needs care during the worship service, you may leave the Sanctuary and return as you wish. There is also an area in the left-side aisle where your child can play quietly.

Worship folders, containing quiet activities, are available from a greeter.
