

FOURTH
PRESBY
TERIAN
CHURCH

A LIGHT IN THE CITY

Christianity is the only world religion that confesses a God who suffers. It is not that popular an idea, even among Christians. We prefer a God who prevents suffering, only that is not the God we have got. What the cross teaches us is that God's power is not the power to force human choices and end human pain. It is, instead, the power to pick up the shattered pieces and make something holy out of them.

Prayer of Adoration

(unison)

We praise you, O God, for your redemption of the world through Jesus Christ. Today he entered the holy city of Jerusalem in triumph and was proclaimed Messiah and king by those who spread garments and branches along his way. Let these branches be signs of his victory, and grant that we who carry them may follow him in the way of the cross, that, dying and rising with him, we may enter into your kingdom; through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

(9:30 and 11:00) Children are dismissed to Church School classes.

Prayer of Confession

(unison)

Merciful God, as we enter this Holy Week, we confess all the ways we have failed to be faithful and strong. We confess all the ways we have failed to love you and our neighbors. We confess all the times we have been silent when we should have spoken, passive when we should have acted. Forgive us and renew our faith. Heal us and make us whole, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

The text of this morning's opening hymn, "All Glory, Laud, and Honor," was written by Theodulph of Orleans around the year 820. Born between 750 and 760 in Spain or Italy, he was discovered by Charlemagne in a monastery at Florence and brought to France in 781, where he was made abbot of Fleury and bishop of Orleans. He was later imprisoned for conspiring against King Louis the Pious. Although legend has it that Theodulph was freed when the king passed the prison and heard him singing "All Glory, Laud, and Honor," it is more probable that Theodulph died in prison in 821. The music that we sing with this text today was composed by Melchior Teschner (1584-1635) in Fraustadt, Germany, after that city had been devastated by a five-month outbreak of the bubonic plague in 1613.

The beginning of the prelude is a call to silent, personal preparation for the worship of God.

Prelude The Palms (The Entry of Jesus into Jerusalem) Jean Langlais

Call to Worship and Invocation

Hymn 147 "Blessing and Honor" Horatius Bonar

Prayer of Confession (unison)
Almighty God, your love incarnate in Jesus Christ was met with palms and with a cross within the selfsame city. We confess with shame that we too have done him reverence in worship but have in the conduct of our lives cast him out. We have called him Lord but have not done what he has called us to do, to love others, to show mercy, and to walk humbly with you. We have allowed ourselves to be seduced by those who, in the name of piety, would exclude others from your hospitality and would destroy others by their hostility. Forgive us for our complicity with evil. Cleanse us of our sin, and let our reverence now and always be known in our obedience to the will and the way of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. Amen.

Attr. Bernard of Clairvaux

Affirmation of Faith (unison)
We are not alone, we live in God's world. We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God. We are called to be the Church: to celebrate God's presence, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our Judge and our Hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God.
