

September 8, 2002 Sixteenth Sunday After Pentecost

The tasks presented to the churches by September 11 remain unfinished. Churches need to continue to develop a theology of the religions that is ecumenical in spirit but also recognizes complexities and oppositions. The churches should enter conversations with other faith communities about common challenges. . . . The events call for realistic theological interpretations of what people are capable of doing. . . . September 11 also offers reasons to hope for renewed possibilities and communities—the routinely heroic performances of firefighters, police, government officials. . . . Now is not the time either to celebrate or lament the churches’ responses. It is time to sustain theological discourse and reflection informed by renewed attention to some classic themes: human nature, the persistence of human fault, and irrepressible grace.

Prayer of Confession (unison)

Merciful God, you pardon all who truly repent and turn to you. We humbly confess our sins and ask your mercy. We have not loved you with a pure heart, nor have we loved our neighbor as ourselves. We have not done justice, loved kindness, or walked humbly with you, our God. Have mercy on us, O God, in your loving-kindness. In your great compassion, cleanse us from our sin. Create in us a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within us. Do not cast us from your presence, or take your Holy Spirit from us. Restore to us the joy of your salvation and sustain us with your bountiful Spirit. Amen.

Nehemiah 2:18 (NRSV)

Hymn “When All the World Is Wounded” Tune: AURELIA
(The Hymnal, 442)
When all the world is wounded, with nations primed for war,
When horrors of destruction loom larger than before,
When we, confused, encounter those who delight to kill,
O Prince of Peace, draw nearer and help us know your will.

When all the world is watching cruel actions of a few,
It stands, bereft, bewildered, uncertain what to do;
Revenge is not the answer, nor is an empty peace;
Lord, may respect for justice throughout the earth increase!

When all the world is fragile, aware it might explode,
We count on you, Creator, our spirits to uphold;
Though hearts are sick and grieving and nothing seems secure,
Relying on your goodness, by faith we will endure.

When all the world is ready to live in harmony,
When goods of every nation are shared out lovingly,
When your commands are followed, true peace will bless each home;
Then, Lord, we’ll know your kingdom on earth has surely come!

Apostles’ Creed (unison)
I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People and the Lord’s Prayer (unison)
Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Response “Amen” Florence Worthington

Worship Notes: The text for the morning hymn "When All the World Is Wounded" was written by Rae Whitney (© 2001 Selah Publishing Co.; reprinted by permission). It is part of the Hymn Society's "Songs of Remembrance: Hymns for the Commemoration of September 11, 2001," a collection of hymns written after September 11.

This morning's prelude, "Prelude and Fugue in E-flat Major," was the only prelude and fugue by Bach to be published during his lifetime. The fugue is based on the hymn tune "St. Anne," which is commonly associated with the text "Our God, Our Help in Ages Past." This hymn first appeared in an English hymnal in 1708, about fifteen years before Bach borrowed it to be the subject of this grand fugue.

The banners and pulpit parament celebrate Ordinary Time, the season of the church year that falls between Epiphany and Lent and between Pentecost and Advent. These hangings, created by Laurie Wohl, are intended to elevate the perception of the sacred in the "ordinary" as we make our faith journey day to day.

Prayer of Confession (unison)

Eternal God, you are worthy to be praised by voices that are pure and by faces filled with light. But as the sun sinks to its setting and the twilight of the evening comes, we discern the darkness, around us and within. We have not loved what you commanded, nor desired what you promised. Amid the passing changes of the world, our hearts have not been fixed on you, where true joys have been found. Lord, have mercy. Amen.

*Affirmation of Faith (unison)

We believe God is present in the darkness before dawn; in the waiting and uncertainty where fear and courage join hands, conflict and caring link arms, and the sun rises over barbed wire. We believe in a with-us God who sits down in our midst to share our humanity. We affirm a faith that takes us beyond the safe place: into action, into vulnerability, and into the streets. We commit ourselves to work for change and put ourselves on the line; to bear responsibility, take risks, live powerfully, and face humiliation; to stand with those on the edge; to choose life and be used by the Spirit for God’s new community of hope. Amen.

BAPTISM AT FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

*“Let the little children come to me . . .
for it is to such as these that the kingdom of heaven belongs.”
Matthew 19:14 (NRSV)*

On the second Sunday of each month, Fourth Church includes the Sacrament of Baptism in morning worship. Baptism is the sign and seal of God’s grace and covenant in Christ. As The Book of Order of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) explains, baptism signifies the faithfulness of God, the washing away of sin, rebirth, putting on the fresh garment of Christ, and adoption into the covenant family of the church.

The baptism of children witnesses to the truth that God’s love claims people before they are able to respond in faith. The congregation, on behalf of the whole church, assumes responsibility for nurturing the baptized children in the Christian life, and it is for this reason that the congregation makes such a promise during the service.

In the unison prayer we also remember that we too were baptized and as children of God are part of the worldwide family of faith.

Children being baptized at the 9:30 worship service are

*Rebecca Grace Brodne, daughter of Bill and Lee Brodne
Peter James Grissom, son of Douglas and Ann Grissom
Samuel Phillips Hunt,
son of D. Bradford Hunt and Page Hartzell Anna Grace Parcels,
daughter of Fred and Lisa Parcels Erin Elizabeth Scott, daughter of Douglas and Kelly Scott*

Children begin baptized at the 11:00 worship service are

*Josef Khalid Alagel, son of Khalid and Pamela Alagel
Katherine Sue Buchanan, daughter of Andrew Buchanan and Mary McMahan William Landa Ness,
son of Timothy and Marisa Ness
Grace Virginia Santos, daughter of Gary and Joan Wegmann*
