

My purpose here is only to notice that the ideal of a whole or completed life now appears to have been replaced by the ideal of a merely long life. . . . What is or what should be the goal of our life and work? This is a fearful question and should be fearfully answered. . . . The ancient norm or ideal seems to have been a life in which you perceived your calling, faithfully followed it, and did your work with satisfaction . . . associated generously with neighbors, grew old seeing yourself replaced by your children or younger neighbors, but continuing in old age to be useful, and finally died a good and holy death.

To me, at my age, the main question is, "Can I be a grateful man when I die? Can I remember up to and on the last day that I had a very good life?"

Wendell Berry,
The Way of Ignorance and a Christian Century interview

WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

We are grateful for your presence and invite you to participate in the worship, program, and service life of Fourth Church.

During Today's Worship

Large-print bulletins, Bibles, and hymnals and individual listening devices for improved sound are available in the back of the sanctuary. Worship also can be heard through the "T" setting of hearing aids.

If your infant or small child needs care during the worship service, you may leave the sanctuary and return as you wish. The worship service audio can be heard in Stone Chapel, where you and your child are also welcome. Child care for infants and toddlers is provided in Westminster 14, through the south transept doors and to the right. See an usher for directions.

Worship bags, containing quiet activities and a bulletin designed for children, are available outside the south transept doors, between the sanctuary and Anderson Hall. Children who are attending worship in the sanctuary are invited to borrow one of these bags.

During the Concerns of the Church, please pass the pew information pads, so that all worshipers have an opportunity to provide updated information and to greet one another by name following the service.

Please turn off all cell phones when in the sanctuary.

If You Are New to Fourth Church

Please wear a lapel pin, found in the pew racks, so we might greet you after worship.

IN THE DETAILS

A close-up look at the seven-foot-tall carved wooden angels atop the aisle piers reveals their distinctive expressions, patterns, and instruments. Shown above are the pair of angels second from the rear of the church. The south angel (left) plays a pair of handbells, while the north angel (right) holds a shield with the lettering “IHS,” an abbreviation of “Jesus” in classical Greek characters.

Today's Minute for Mission is presented by Cecy Szuba on behalf of the Mission Benefit Committee. For more information about this annual event supporting Chicago Lights at Fourth Presbyterian Church, the Lorene Replogle Counseling Center, and other mission partners of Fourth Church, stop by the Chicago Lights table during Coffee Hour. Reservations for the Benefit can be made at the table as well.

The textile banners and pulpit parament, "Unweavings" created by Laurie Wohl, are intended to elevate the perception of the sacred in the "ordinary" as we make our faith journey day to day. More information about these hangings is available in the literature racks.

The bulletin cover depicts the wooden ceiling of the sanctuary. Designed by renowned Chicago artist Frederick C. Bartlett, the ceiling is characteristic of English churches and reflects the Viking influences on the British Isles.
