

In the future, when all that is to be known about God will be known, when we no longer see, as we do now, only in part, I think many of us will be surprised by the capacious generosity of God. . . . Within the teachings of Jesus we have case after case of Jesus pointing to a God who is larger than the conventional wisdom, who is not downsized by the petty pieties of those who would constrain him by their own limited knowledge and experience.

WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

We are grateful for your presence and invite you to participate in the worship, program, and service life of Fourth Church.

During Today's Worship

Large-print bulletins, Bibles, and hymnals and individual listening devices for improved sound are available in the back of the sanctuary. Worship also can be heard through the "T" setting of hearing aids.

If your infant or small child needs care during the worship service, you may leave the sanctuary and return as you wish. The worship service audio can be heard in Stone Chapel, where you and your child are also welcome. Child care for infants and toddlers is provided in Westminster 14, through the south transept doors and to the right. See an usher for directions.

Worship bags, containing quiet activities and a bulletin designed for children, are available outside the south transept doors, between the sanctuary and Anderson Hall. Children who are attending worship in the sanctuary are invited to borrow one of these bags.

During the Concerns of the Church, please pass the pew information pads, so that all worshipers have an opportunity to provide updated information and to greet one another by name following the service.

Please turn off all cell phones when in the sanctuary.

IN THE DETAILS

The Great East Window in the Fourth Presbyterian Church sanctuary was designed by Charles J. Connick and installed in 1930. In 1937, Fourth Church gave the east window that had been installed at the time the sanctuary was built (1914) to the Roseland Presbyterian Church at 11200 S. State Street. That original window, done in the style of the grisaille windows along the aisles of the sanctuary and containing identical diamonds with symbols in them, can still be seen at the church, which is today known as Cornerstone Presbyterian Church.

Shown on this page is the fourth window panel from the left, in which Saint Luke is depicted at the top of the panel, with an ox (the symbol for Luke and his portrayal of the sacrificial character of Christ) and the identification “Saint Luke” above his head. The central scene (upper right) is a representation of the New Testament parable of the house built on a rock (Luke 6:47–49). Below that sits the Old Testament prophet Jeremiah, shown as a prototype of Luke.

Fourth Church extends its thanks to the men of the Morning Choir, who assisted in morning worship services during the month of August. The full choir will return in September. Anyone interested in participating in an adult or children's choir is encouraged to contact John Sherer at 312.981.3592 (jsherer@fourthchurch.org).

Peter Gomes, who is quoted on the bulletin cover, will be preaching at Fourth Church on Sunday, September 23 at 9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

The four seven-foot handcarved angels depicted on the bulletin cover grace the tops of the piers in the nave of the sanctuary. Many hold musical instruments mentioned in the hymn of praise, Psalm 150 (page 551, O.T.). They serve as a reminder of the invitation to praise God, in word and song, in thought and deed, in the sanctuary and, indeed, in all of life.
