

AMERICAN CITIZENS WILL CONTINUE TO ARGUE over where to draw the line between church and state, even as religion will bedevil and enlighten governmental policies and electoral politics for years to come. The ideals of liberty and order will coexist in tension as they have in the nation's womb from the beginning. . . . The founders believed in the United States as a repository for the highest human values. To betray those values was, in each of their eyes, to commit national sacrilege. Their civic agendas arose not only from competing ideologies but also from competing visions of how "America might," as Martin Luther King Jr. dreamed, "rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed."

WELCOME TO WORSHIP AT FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

We are grateful for your presence and invite you to participate in the worship, program, and service life of Fourth Church.

During Today's Worship

Large-print bulletins, Bibles, and hymnals and individual listening devices for improved sound are available in the back of the sanctuary. Worship also can be heard through the "T" setting of hearing aids.

If your infant or small child needs care during the worship service, you may leave the sanctuary and return as you wish. The worship service audio can be heard in Stone Chapel, where you and your child are also welcome. Child care for infants and toddlers is provided in Westminster 14, through the south transept doors and to the right. See an usher for directions.

Worship bags, containing quiet activities and a bulletin designed for children, are available outside the south transept doors, between the sanctuary and Anderson Hall. Children who are attending worship in the sanctuary are invited to borrow one of these bags.

During the Concerns of the Church, please pass the pew information pads, so that all worshipers have an opportunity to provide updated information and to greet one another by name following the service.

Please turn off all cell phones when in the sanctuary.

If You Are New to Fourth Church

Please wear a lapel pin, found in the pew racks, so we might greet you after worship.

We invite you to stop by Coffee Hour after worship for fellowship, conversation, and information about church programs and volunteer opportunities.

A church tour begins at 12:15 p.m., starting at the back of the sanctuary.

Hancock tickets must be validated in the Narthex, at the back of the sanctuary.

God of all nations: You led men and women to this land, and out of our conflicts you have created in us a love for peace and liberty.
When we neglect rights and restrict freedoms,
we fail you. When we turn away neighbors in need and refuse to extend the opportunities of this land
to all, we offend your justice and your love.
Forgive us. Forgive pride that will not acknowledge national wrong and that justifies injustice.
Forgive our divisions of race and class.
Make us compassionate, fair, and helpful to each other and to all people. Raise up in us a right patriotism that seeks our nation's good and the world's peace and hope. Through Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen.

'Tis the gift to be simple; 'tis the gift to be free;

When true simplicity is gained, to bow and to bend

WORSHIP NOTES

Contributions to the Chicago Lights Annual Fund allow students from the inner city to participate in Summer Day, a six-week educational camp designed to give children a head start on the fall semester. Through the generosity of an anonymous donor, between now and July 31 every dollar raised through an increased or new gift to the Chicago Lights Annual Fund will result in a matching gift, up to $50,000, to the programs of Chicago Lights, a nonprofit community service organization at Fourth Presbyterian Church.

The women of the Morning Choir will be singing at morning worship services in July. The men of the Morning Choir will sing during August, and the full choir will return in September.

The textile banners and pulpit parament, “Unweavings” created by Laurie Wohl, were commissioned by Fourth Church for use during the liturgical season of Ordinary Time, the longest season of the church year (the season between Epiphany and Lent and between Pentecost and Advent). Through their combination of scripture texts and image, these banners celebrate and elevate the perception of the sacred in the “ordinary” as we make our faith journey day to day.

On the cover: The bulletin cover shows an architectural detail from the Fourth Church spire. This angel on the Michigan Avenue facade echoes the text of Psalm 150:
“Praise God with trumpet sound. . . . Let everything that breathes praise the Lord!”
