Prayer of Confession (unison)

Eternal God, in every age you have raised up people to live and die in faith.
We confess that at times we are indifferent to your will.
You call us to proclaim your love and justice but we are silent.
You call us to live faithfully but we are afraid.
In your great mercy, most loving God, forgive us.
Give us courage to follow in your way, joining those who have lived in faith and love throughout the ages.
Through Christ we pray. Amen.

Declaration of Pardon

Leader: Friends, believe the good news:
People: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

*Exchange of Peace

Worship Notes

TODAY'S MINUTE FOR DISCIPLESHIP on the legacy of giving is presented by Larry Nicholson.

THIS MORNING, COMMUNION IS SERVED by intinction. The congregation comes forward by the center aisle to receive the bread, which they then dip into the chalice of grape juice. (Gluten-free bread is available in a small tumbler in each basket of bread.) Worshipers return to their pews by the side aisles.

The invitation to the Lord's Supper is not just for Presbyterians or "members of the church." All who confess Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord are invited to partake of the Lord's Supper.

THIS EVENING, IN OBSERVANCE OF ALL SAINTS' SUNDAY, Herbert Howells' Requiem will be sung by the Morning Choir during a special Communion service of remembrance at 6:30 p.m. in the Sanctuary. Howells wrote this setting between 1932 and 1936. With the death of his son Michael in 1935 this Requiem became a deeply personal piece of music for the composer. As a result he did not release it for performance until 1980 or for publication until 1981.

THE BULLETIN COVER PHOTOGRAPH, which has never been published before, shows the vision of this congregation taking shape in new ways in a new place. Taken on February 17, 1913, the photo depicts Fourth Church under construction as viewed from the spot where the entrance to the Westin Hotel is now. The cover quote is from William Walsham How's hymn, "For All the Saints."
